

St. Hubert's Animal Welfare Center

2014 Annual Report

July 1, 2013 - June 30, 2014

Thousands of animals came to St. Hubert's including

657

from local shelters, sister shelters, and local emergency cases giving homeless animals a second chance dog and cat meals provided to families in need

active volunteers

low-cost spay/neuter provided to community cats

adoptions at volunteer-run off-site venues

dogs welcomed
from effective
distance transport

3,329 students attending 520 pet training classes

Highest rating by Charity Navigator

enhancing the animal welfare field children reached through our humane education programs

staff hours deployed
around the country assisting at natural and man-made disasters

unique organizations were provided free dog behavior assistance through "Mutts on the Mend"

attendees in our professional continuing education series

St. Hubert's is dedicated to the humane treatment of animals. The organization believes in and provides services that support the human-animal bond and seeks to foster an environment in which people respect all living creatures.